

International Scientific Conference

'How to help victims of domestic violence and what can be done better?' - review of existing solutions and proposition of new activities'

September 29-30, 2022

September 29, 2022

10:00 – 10:30 – Opening of the conference

- prof. UKSW, dr hab. Marcin Wielec, Director of the Institute of Justice
- dr Marcin Romanowski, Undersecretary of State in the Ministry of Justice
- Tomasz Gajewski, Deputy Director of the Department of Strategy and European Funds
- Bartłomiej Oręziak, Project Manager, Coordinator of the Center for Strategic Analyses of the Institute of Justice

10:30 - 10:50 - Coffee break

Session 1

10:50 – 11:10 – dr Jarosław Przeperski (Research team leader), Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń – Improving relationship quality as a means of preventing domestic violence: conclusions of the diagnostic phase

11:10 - 11:30 - dr Rafał Lange (Member of the Polish Research Team), Scientific and Academic Computer Network - Availability of relational support services in the opinion of the Polish population

11:30 - 11:50 - Małgorzata Grządzielewska (Model development specialist), Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń - Model of integrated prevention of domestic violence based on good-quality relationships

11:50 - 12:10 - Samuel Owusu (Research team assistant) - Relational Risk Assessment to Identify At-Risk Persons

12:10- 12:30 - Panel discussion

12:30 - 12:50 - Coffee break

Session 2

12:50 - 13:10 - prof. UMK, dr hab. Jarosław Horowski, Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń – Education for Loneliness in the Context of Education for Mature Relationships

13:10 - 13:30 - prof. UJD, dr hab. Izabela Krasiejko, University of Humanities and Life Sciences Jan Długosz in Częstochowa - The role and activities of the family assistant in preventing violence against children

13:30 - 13:50 – Panel discussion

13:50 – 14:40 – Lunch break

Session 3

14:40 – 15:00 – Joanna Repeć, the Warsaw Bar Association, Children's Rights Section – Violence against children in the light of Polish legislation

15:00 - 15:20 - dr Michał Poniatowski (Member of the Polish Research Team), Canon Law Faculty of the Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw – Counteracting domestic violence as an element of the activities of non-governmental organizations.

15:20 - 15:40 – Panel discussion

15:40 - 15:50 - Conclusion of the first day of the conference

(Online) September 30, 2022

Session 1

10:00 – 10:15 – Prof. Brita Gjerstad, Prof. Kathrine Skoland, Prof. Ragnhild Gjerstad & Prof. Ingunn Studsrød (Norwegian research team members from the University of Stavanger and the Norwegian Research Centre) - Preventing domestic violence in Norway- reflecting on examples of applied measures

10:15 – 10:30 – Csemáné Dr. Váradi Erika, University of Miskolc Faculty of Law - Current issues in the treatment of domestic violence

10:30 – 10:45 – Prof. Dr. Anna-Maria Getoš Kalac, University in Zagreb - Tackling Domestic Violence Through Criminal Law: Focus on Empirically Based Crime Policy

10:45 – 11:05 – Panel discussion

11:05-11:30 - Coffee break

Session 2

11:30 - 11:45 - Natalija Lukic, PhD. Assistant Professor, University of Belgrade - A review of risk assessment in Serbian Law on Domestic Violence Protection

11:45 – 12:00 - Assist. Prof. Dr. Reana Bezić, University in Zagreb - Domestic violence victim protection in Croatia – main challenges & new solutions

12:00 – 12:15 - Petra Šprem, University of Zagreb - Fighting domestic violence – how successful we are?

12:15 - 12:30 - Klaudia Łuniewska, Institute of Justice - Domestic violence against children - an overview of reaction tools available in Polish legislation

12:30 - 12:45 - Dr. Róbert Dobrovodský, LL. M., the University of Trnava - Current legal developments of Slovak Law Protection against domestic violence

12:45 – 13:05 – Panel discussion

12:50 – 13:10 – Conclusion of the conference